
North Fulton Amateur Radio League Bylaws

Section I – PURPOSE AND POLICY

1.10 PURPOSE

The North Fulton Amateur Radio League (NFARL) is organized for nonprofit charitable, educational and scientific purposes as recognized under the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code and section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. As set forth in the NFARL Restated Articles of Incorporation, the corporation's purposes are:

- (a) To educate and increase the proficiency of its members in the science of radio communication;
- (b) To provide for the dissemination of information among its members concerning scientific advancement and progress in the field of radio communication;
- (c) To organize and train units of licensed radio amateurs capable of maintaining radio communication as a public service, particularly during periods of emergency or disaster;
- (d) To conduct periodic classes in radio science for persons seeking an amateur radio license or for those seeking to upgrade their current license;

- (e) To encourage and sponsor experimental activities in radio communication and electronics to the end that skills and experience gained in amateur radio will further the application of these sciences to the benefit of the public at large;
- (f) To promote the elevation of standards of practice and ethics in the conduct of amateur radio communications.

1.20 POLICY

It shall be the policy of the NFARL to support and join with other local, national and international amateur radio groups, as appropriate, to provide unity of action in achieving the purposes set forth in Section 1.10.

Section II – MEMBERSHIP

2.10 REQUIREMENTS

Any person interested in amateur radio shall be eligible for membership without regard for gender, race, ethnicity or sexual orientation. A valid amateur radio license is required for Full membership (see 2.31) and without a valid Amateur Radio License will be considered an Associate Member (see 2.37). Once accepted as detailed in Section 2.20, a member shall have equal rights and privileges with all other members unless specifically prohibited by these Bylaws or federal law.

2.20 APPLICATION

Membership may be accomplished by filling out the necessary documentation as shown on www.nfarl.org. One year's dues as specified by NFARL shall accompany each such application. The Board may act upon each submitted application prior to the next regularly scheduled NFARL meeting. If the Board's recommendation is favorable, the applicant shall be deemed an active member as of the date of the Board meeting. If the Board's recommendation is unfavorable, the application and all dues paid shall be returned to the applicant.

If an applicant is rejected, an application for membership may be resubmitted one time, 90 (ninety) days following the date of the rejection of the initial application, using the standard application procedure. If the individual reapplying so desires, a written document not to exceed 500 words in length in support of the reapplication process may accompany the standard application form. If the Board's recommendation upon reapplication is favorable, the applicant shall be deemed an active member as of the date of the Board meeting. If the Board's recommendation is unfavorable, the resubmitted application, supporting documentation (if any) and all dues paid shall be returned to the applicant.

All decisions of the Board shall be considered final and not subject to appeal except as noted above.

2.30 MEMBERSHIP CLASSES

There are seven classes of membership in NFARL. As noted in Section 2.31-2.37, all classes of membership shall carry the same rights and privileges unless specifically prohibited by these Bylaws or federal law with the exception of voting. Voting rights are specified in each of the membership classes.

2.31 FULL MEMBERSHIP

Full membership is open to all individuals over the age of 18. The dues shall be as established by the Board and as are posted on the NFARL website www.nfarl.org at the time of the initial application or renewal. Dues will run for 12 (twelve) months from the date of membership and shall be renewed annually. In cases of true financial hardship, the Board may elect to waive the dues of a given member. The period of such a hardship waiver shall not exceed one year without a review of the circumstances leading to the waiver by the Board. Full Membership individuals who are current on dues with a valid amateur radio license have voting rights in all NFARL matters. Individuals who are current on dues without an Amateur Radio License will be referred to as Associate Members (see 2.37) and have no voting rights.

2.32 FAMILY MEMBERSHIP

Family Memberships are available to the members of the same household provided at least one member in the household is a Full Member per Section 2.31 or Life Member per Section 2.34. The term "Family Member" shall be extended to wives, husbands, domestic partners, and children up to the age of 21. Renewal for each Family Member shall run concurrent with those of the Full Member or Life Member. Full Members, Life Members and Family Members with a valid Amateur Radio License may vote on NFARL matters. All other Family Members without a valid Amateur Radio License will have rights as indicated by Associate Members (see 2.37) except for payment.

2.33 YOUTH MEMBERSHIP

Recognizing that it is in the interest of amateur radio to actively recruit young persons to the amateur radio service, a Youth Membership is available to anyone who has not yet turned 21, regardless of family affiliation and is a free membership. Upon reaching the age of 21, Youth Members must convert their membership to a Full Membership (Section 2.31) or a Family Membership (Section 2.32) if they desire to retain membership in NFARL. A Youth Member with a valid Amateur Radio License will be allowed to vote in NFARL matters and those without a license will have the rights of an Associate Member (see 2.37).

2.34 LIFE MEMBERSHIP

A Life Membership is available to those who qualify for Full Membership. A Life Member may add the Family if desired, based on the requirements per Section

North Fulton Amateur Radio League Bylaws

2.32. Only those who have fully paid for a Life Membership will be considered as a Life Member. The price will be calculated at the rate of 20 (twenty) times the dues as posted on the NFARL website, www.nfarl.org, at the time of application for Life Membership. Life members have all voting rights in all NFARL matters. Once granted, Life Members shall be exempt from future dues. When children of the life member reach the age of 21 they must obtain their own membership in NFARL.

2.35 EDUCATOR MEMBERSHIP

Recognizing that it is in the interest of amateur radio to actively recruit young persons into the amateur radio service and further recognizing that the support of professional educators who work with youth furthers that objective, an Educator Membership is available with dues as established by the Board and as posted on the NFARL website www.nfarl.org at the time of the initial application or renewal. This class of membership is available to those educators who:

- (a) Hold a valid teaching certificate in the state of Georgia, and or;
- (b) Hold a teaching appointment at a public or private educational institution recognized by the state of Georgia or one of its affiliated agencies, and or;

- (c) Serve as the sponsor of or are affiliated with an amateur radio club recognized as an official club or function of the educational institution;
- (d) Document every four to six months that said radio club has met at least monthly when the educational institution is in session;
- (e) Document at the end of the educational institution's year that a reasonable effort has been expended on the part of the Educator Member to generate new amateur radio licensees within the educational setting and/or upgrade the licenses of already licensed members of the educational institution. Documentation shall be provided to the Membership Chairman to help

- support the NFARL purposes stated in 1.10 above.
- (f) Should the individual with an Educator Membership not be in substantial compliance with Section 2.35 qualifications (a) through (e) on the anniversary of their membership, they shall be required to convert to a Full or Life Membership should they desire to retain membership in NFARL.
- (g) Should an educational institution become active in the recruitment, teaching and training of amateur radio operators as defined in Section 2.35 qualifications (a) through (e) after a lapse of at least one institutional year, the individual(s) involved may reapply for the Educator Membership. If already an active member of NFARL, the Educator Membership will be granted on the

- anniversary of their current membership.
- (h) Must have a valid Amateur Radio License to vote in any and all NFARL matters.

2.36 HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

An Honorary Membership may be granted on an individual basis at the recommendation of the President and with the approval of the Board. Honorary Memberships may be extended to those who have made extraordinary contributions in terms of technical expertise, leadership or financial support to NFARL or to the amateur radio service in general. Honorary Members shall have all of the rights and privileges of NFARL Full membership except that all future dues shall be waived. As a rough guideline, not more than 3% (three percent) of the active membership should be in the Honorary Membership category at any given time. Honorary members must have a valid Amateur Radio License to vote in any and all NFARL matters.

North Fulton Amateur Radio League Bylaws

2.37 ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

An Associate Membership is available to anyone without a Valid Amateur Radio License with dues paid in full. No Associate Member is allowed to vote on any and all NFARL matters. An Associate Member with dues paid in full will immediately become a full voting member upon acquiring a valid Amateur Radio License.

2.40 WAIVER OF ANNUAL DUES

From time to time at the discretion of the Board, annual dues may be waived for a period of not more than one year for a subclass of the NFARL membership provided the waiver is applied equally to all members of the subclass: for example, all individuals successfully completing an initial or upgrade examination in association with NFARL HamCram. All such programs will be carefully reviewed at their inception for economic impact on NFARL and fairness to all members. All such programs approved by the Board will be reviewed annually, such review to include but not necessarily limited to the successful recruitment and retention of NFARL members and economic impact on NFARL. Programs deemed to be successful may be continued for another year with the approval of the Board. Programs deemed to have failed will either be modified or discontinued.

2.50 NONPAYMENT OF DUES

Any member whose dues are in arrears more than thirty (30) days after their renewal date shall be considered inactive and may be removed from the club membership roster. Renewal dates start at the required date of renewal unless a period of nine (9) months has passed and then it begins at the date of processing the membership. Inactive members have no voting privileges. Any person considered inactive for non-payment of dues shall be reinstated upon payment of dues.

Section III – OFFICERS, ELECTIONS, AND COMMITTEES

3.10 OFFICERS

The officers of the NFARL shall be: President,
Vice President,

North Fulton Amateur Radio League Bylaws

Secretary,
Treasurer,
Activities Chairman, and
Membership Chairman.

3.20 BOARD OF DIRECTORS (Board)

The Board of the NFARL shall consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Activities Chairman, Membership Chairman and Immediate Past President. The Youth, Education, Scholarship and Activities (YESA) Chairman will also be a voting member of the Board in all matters related to YESA. Other club members with significant responsibilities in club operations will be invited to regularly attend the Board meetings and while they will not be voting members of the Board, their ideas and recommendations will be carefully considered in all matters pertaining to the club. Board meetings are open to club members in good standing and the Board meeting time and place shall be posted on the club website. No Board Member may have more than one (1) voting position during any term of office. The Board shall act in an advisory status only for the VE Team and shall have no direct control of their decisions.

3.21 EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (EXCOM)

EXCOM shall consist of the President,
Vice President,
Secretary,
Treasurer,
Immediate Past President,
Activities Chairman,
Membership Chairman,
Web Master,
Repeater Chairman,
Media Coordinator,
eNews Editor,
YESA Chairman,
QSL Manager and others as specified by the President

3.30 ELECTIONS

The regular election of officers shall proceed as follows:

- (a) At the September meeting each year, the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee composed of at least three (3) members in good standing of NFARL, one of whom is a regular attendee of the Board meetings.
- (b) The Nominating Committee shall meet and select one qualified member of NFARL as nominees for each office to be filled. Only members who are

North Fulton Amateur Radio League Bylaws

- willing to serve shall be nominated. And, only members who are in good standing with the club and who have been members of the club for at least twelve (12) consecutive months shall be considered for nomination.
- (c) The Nominating Committee shall make its recommendations known in the monthly newsletter of NFARL prior to the regular October meeting.
- (d) The Nominating Committee shall read its recommendations to the general membership at the regular October meeting. After the reading, additional nominations from the floor shall be accepted and placed onto the ballot.
- (e) Each office to be filled shall then be voted upon, at the October meeting, by either open vote or show of hands or a secret ballot if requested by any member of NFARL who is in good standing with the club. The secret ballot request must be made for a specific position. If this request is supported by a majority of the club members present, then a secret ballot for the specified office will be held.
- (f) Any nominee receiving a simple majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected.
- (g) The order of the election of officers shall be: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Activities Chairman, and Membership Chairman.
- (h) If the office of Vice President, Treasurer, or Secretary is not filled by a regular election, the President may appoint a member of the club who is in good standing to fill the position until a special election can be held. The appointed person must receive a favorable majority vote from the remaining members of the Board to fill the position. If the office of Activities Chairman or Membership Chairman is not filled by a regular election, the President may appoint a member of the club who is in good standing to fill the position until the end of the term as designated in Section 3.55. If Board and/or EXCOM positions are vacated during the year, they may be filled by NFARL Presidential appointment for the balance of the term.

3.40 SPECIAL ELECTIONS

Special elections may be held at any meeting to fill vacancies, which occur between regular elections. A special procedure applies to the vacancy in the office of President (see Section 3.45); the balance of this section applies to all elected offices other than President. If a special election is to be held, a notice to this effect shall be published in the issue of the official club newsletter immediately preceding such an election. Those members of NFARL present at such special meeting shall comprise a committee competent to nominate and elect a club member, in good standing, to the vacant office.

3.45 OFFICER VACANCIES

Should the office of President become vacant for any reason, the Vice President shall immediately assume the office of President and the office of Vice President shall be declared vacant and refilled under the terms of Section 3.40.

3.50 OFFICER TERMS

The term of office for all officers shall be for one (1) year, commencing January 01 at 0000 hours and continuing until December 31 at 2359 hours of the same year, or until their successor has been elected and seated. Officers elected at special elections shall assume office immediately and their term of office shall end on December 31 at 2359 hours of the same year, or until their successor has been elected and seated. New officers are encouraged to attend the November Board Meeting. It is necessary for the incoming officers to attend the December Board Meeting in the year elected. This is done to make an easier transition for the new officers. Each outgoing officer is to provide operational procedures in writing to the new officers.

3.55 APPOINTMENT TERMS

The term for all appointments shall be for one (1) year as noted in Section 3.50, or until their successor has been appointed. Those appointed to fill an unexpired term shall assume responsibility immediately.

3.60 OFFICE VACANCY

An office may be declared vacant for any reason by a majority vote of the members present at a special meeting. Elected offices that become vacant will be filled under the terms of Section 3.40.

This includes selecting additional members to manage the YESA Program specifically Education, Scholarship, training, school programs, STEM Events, etc. This will include the disbursement of funds in the YESA Account. The funds in this account including all Ham Jam profits and other donations specified for youth are to be utilized only for YESA Programs. Funds may be approved by the YESA Chairman up to $500 without approval from the NFARL Board. If it is necessary to fund anything over $500, other than items specified in the YESA Budget, it requires concurrence from a minimum of two (2) NFARL Board Members in writing or by email. Items specified in the Approved YESA Budget may be paid based on that budget without further approval. The YESA Chairman is required to submit a budget to the NFARL Board during first quarter of each year, preferably no later than the February Board Meeting. It will be voted on by the NFARL Board after submission. YESA Financials are to be turned in to the Board each quarter for Board review. The YESA Chairman will be a voting member of the NFARL Board on all YESA Matters. Programs such as Ham Jam are to be coordinated with the NFARL Board and the profit from these programs are to be placed in the YESA Account for their expenditures in youth programs. The YESA Chairman is required to attend all Board meetings when YESA matters are to be considered and recommended to attend all Board meetings. The YESA Chairman will be appointed by the incoming president immediately upon taking office. There is to be a minimum of 30 day overlap with the current and new YESA Chairmen in order to maintain continuity.

Section V – MEETINGS

5.10 REGULAR CLUB MEETINGS

Regular NFARL Club meetings shall be held once each calendar month at such place and at such time as the President shall order including video conferencing. The President may cancel regular meetings. Normally, regular meetings are reserved for informational, educational and social purposes. No business is usually conducted at the regular monthly meeting unless the meeting or a portion of the meeting has been specifically called to order as a business meeting.

5.20 REGULAR CLUB BUSINESS MEETINGS

The two NFARL regular meetings at which business is usually conducted are the annual election of club officers during the October meeting and occasional elections to approve changes in the NFARL bylaws. Notice shall be published by the Secretary in the club newsletter informing all club members of these elections and bylaw amendments should they occur.

5.30 BOARD MEETINGS

Regular NFARL Board meetings shall be held once each calendar month at such place and at such time as the President shall order including video conferencing. The President may cancel regular meetings of the Board as necessary.

North Fulton Amateur Radio League Bylaws

Only such business as is designated in the request shall be transacted at the special meeting, except when the special meeting is called to take the place of a regular Board meeting.

Section VI – Finances, DUES, and BUDGET

6.10 ACCOUNTING

The accounting for NFARL finances shall be on a calendar year basis beginning on January 1 through December 31 of the reporting year.

6.20 DUES

The membership dues structure shall be reviewed by the Board on an annual basis in conjunction with the annual budgeting process. Dues may be adjusted by majority vote of the Board as a result of the review process and shall be promptly posted on the NFARL website, www.nfarl.org.

6.30 BUDGET

It will be the responsibility of the Board to prepare the budget for NFARL each year. The budget shall be consistent with the purposes of NFARL utilizing the expected revenues and resources. The budget will be prepared on a calendar year basis by January 15 of that reporting year and will be voted upon by the Board at the February Board meeting. The Board shall direct the Treasurer to make such expenditures of club funds that are consistent with the budget so devised, and as provided in Section 4.40. At the close of each calendar year, it shall be the duty of the Board to review the accounts of the Treasurer and publish a report of its findings to the club in the next club newsletter.

Section VII – Amendments, Suspension of Bylaws, Rules

7.10 AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the total authorized voting club membership present at any meeting if a 30 day advance notice of the proposed amendment(s) has been published for all members to read in the club newsletter or placed on the club web page for review. A copy of the proposed amendment(s) shall be made available at the meeting where the vote will be taken.

7.20 GOVERNING MEETING RULES

Robert's Rules of Order shall govern all business meetings of NFARL except in case of conflict with these bylaws, in which case the bylaws shall govern.

7.30 QUORUM

All eligible voting members present at a regularly scheduled meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except for amendment of bylaws as provided in Section 7.10. Regular business items shall be deemed as approved based on a simple majority vote of those present.

Section VIII – Appointments, Committees

8.10 PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS

The President shall have the power to appoint such committees as he or she deems advisable for the welfare of NFARL, and he or she shall have the power to dissolve such committees at any time, except those appointed by the Board.

8.11 PRESIDENTIAL COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

The President shall have the power to define and make appointments to club operating management roles as he or she deems advisable for the welfare of NFARL. The President shall have the power to rescind appointments, appoint replacements, and add or eliminate operating management roles. Executive Committee Members or other club members in good standing may be appointed to these roles. While members of the Executive Team, these appointments are without vote on the Board (see Section 3.20). Examples of operating management roles include but are not limited to eNews Editor, ARES Liaison, Field Day Chairman, Repeater Operations, Education, Training, Net Operations, QSL Manager and Webmaster. The NFARL VE Team is affiliated with NFARL, but not covered by the NFARL Bylaws.

North Fulton Amateur Radio League Bylaws

8.20 GOVERNING BODY

The Board is the club's governing body and shall approve all club activities and projects.

8.22 BOARD CHAIRMAN

The President is the Chairman of the Board and will conduct its meetings.

8.23 BOARD MEETINGS

The Board shall meet at the call of the President, or any two (2) other members of the Board. Normally the Board meets monthly.

8.24 BOARD MEETING QUORUM

Four (4) members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of club business.

8.25 MOTIONS

Motions brought before the Board shall be deemed approved if a quorum is present and a simple majority of Board members present vote in favor.

8.26 BOARD FINANCIAL AUTHORITY

The Board has full authority to utilize club funds as it sees fit to support club operations. The Board of Directors must specifically approve disbursements of club funds in excess of $250 (two hundred fifty dollars). YESA has other financial authority as specified in 4.95. All expenditures shall have invoices for reimbursement. Any funds not paid directly by NFARL shall be processed within 60 days of the expenditure or be forfeited to the club. Special circumstances may be considered by the Board of Directors.

8.27 CPA ASSISTANCE

The Board may retain a CPA to assist in maintaining records and making sure the club is operated in compliance with local, state, and federal rules.

8.30 INAPPROPRIATE MEMBER ACTIVITY

Should it come to the attention of any member of the Board that a NFARL member has been accused of or is alleged to have engaged in inappropriate activity with minors under the age of 18, the President or the Vice President in his or her stead shall be contacted as soon as is practical. The NFARL member involved shall be prohibited from the unsupervised contact with NFARL members under the age of 18 at any and all NFARL-sponsored or affiliated activities

North Fulton Amateur Radio League Bylaws

until such time as all allegations are resolved. The President or Vice President shall bring the allegations to the attention of the appropriate authorities as soon as is practical. Should the Board so choose, the involved NFARL member may have membership revoked per Section 8.40

8.31 MINOR INTERACTION

At any NFARL sponsored or affiliated activity where minors under the age of 18 are present at least two (2) unrelated adults shall be present.

8.40 MEMBERSHIP TERMINATION

The Board may terminate a member's membership for actions deemed not consistent with the goals of the club. The Board must vote unanimously to terminate a member's membership.
